

The current no-call list used in the state of Wisconsin is working very well. Please do not change it. My family can sit down to dinner without being interrupted by telemarketers. My time at home is valuable to me and I don't appreciate telemarketers invading my home. If I want to purchase a product, I will call them.